COMMUNICATIONS ACT 2006
Section 49

-----
RIGHT TO INSTALL FACILITIES

Pursuant to the provisions of section 49 of the Communications Act 2006 and having considered the applications submitted, the following companies which are:

- i. authorised to provide a public electronic communications network, or
- ii. authorised to provide an electronic communications network other than to the public, are granted a general right to install facilities on, over or under public or private land.

Gibtelecom Ltd
Broadband Gibraltar Ltd, trading as Sapphire Networks
Eazi Telecom Ltd, trading as Shine

In considering whether to grant the application I have had regard, in particular, to each of the following matters—

- i. the benefit to the public of the electronic communications network;
- ii. the practicability of the provision of that network;
- iii. the need to encourage the sharing of the use of electronic communications apparatus;
- iv. whether the companies will be able to meet the financial liabilities, including under any agreement with third parties, that may arise in the exercise of rights to install.
